CALVARY CHILDREN'S HOME • COMMITTED TO MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Peace in the Midst of the Storm

Recently every media outlet has been filled with reports and pictures of the enormous damage caused by Hurricane Ian. It's impossible to see such devastation without a deep sense of sadness and shocking realization of what those families are going through and understanding it could easily have been any of us. Then after the attention of the media ends, the real work of restoration has just begun.

Snyder Turner

Watching a storm is much different than being in one. We quickly learn it takes much longer to get over a storm than it does to get into one. The children who come to Calvary have, in one way or another, experienced a storm in their young life and family. The uncertainty of their future, the loss and separation from familiar things and wondering if someone really cares is challenging for any adult. However, when it is a child facing these times, the impact can be overwhelming. We believe a personal relationship with Jesus Christ is the foundation to the emotional and spiritual healing that is available.

We understand that regardless of the source of a storm, we still must find the strength to go through it with faith and dedication as we move forward in the days ahead. Some days it may seem to our children they will never get over a storm, but by God's grace they can get through it. And that is possible with the help and prayers of the caring friends who stand with them with love and encouragement. You have proven to be that friend and we are grateful.

Through your prayers and faithful support, you have stepped in to be a vital part in providing a safe harbor and better future. You are helping our children find that "Peace in the Midst of the Storm." God is mindful of your work and labor of love you have shown us. (Hebrews 6:10)

For generations, summertime has been a season anticipated with joy and expectation. For children, it is a window of refreshment and the absence of school schedules and educational requirements including that dreaded homework. In their lives, it is a short span where they can be carefree and live apart from the demands of their schools and just be kids.

This summer our children participated in so many adventures. Some attended an FCA outdoor camp where they learned archery, shotgun shooting and all things lake and campfire. They came back singing those campfire songs to the top of their lungs. Some stretched themselves and played summer sports. We have 6 boys in football who can tell you about every tackle they have made, and every yard gained. One of our freshman boys got to carry the ball in a Varsity game. He only gained one yard and was tossed like a ragdoll by the much larger players. The first thing he told his houseparent that night was "Did you see my run? I didn't fumble!" Special memories for sure.

Additionally, our children attended Strong Rock Camp in Cleveland, Georgia. This is a two -week experience that is literally like something you would see in a movie. So much is learned and gained through this experience and many weeks later, you can still hear the principles taught at this Christian Camp rolling down the hallways in our children's conversations.

In another spectacular act of kindness, North Cobb Christian School has made a path for most of our High School students to attend this school of excellence. It is a much more therapeutic environment for our children who come from broken places. God has been so good.

TO OUR CALVARY SUPPORTERS...

On some days at Calvary, you can see that the fabric of our children's young lives has been worn and stretched far too soon. Like all of us, sometimes the heartaches and pains of the challenging times in life are more visible than others.

Summertime is a healing time. Summertime is a mending time. Those precious conversations, shared adventures, spiritual guidance and the very best memories are so very needed by the children who call Calvary home. Your support makes our summertime possible.

Thank You!
